

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls
Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Mrs. JOHN TETREHAULT, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYERS, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dizziness, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

YES—IT IS POSSIBLE TO STOP RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is a tormenting and stubborn malady. In some cases it yields to treatment which is without avail in other cases.

The darting pains, lame muscles or stiffened joints only disappear by gradually expelling the uric acid, and so many thousands have been relieved by the blood-enriching oil-food in Scott's Emulsion that you should give it a faithful trial. Scott's Emulsion acts as a powerful blood-purifier by increasing the red corpuscles and it strengthens the organs to carry off the acids which cause the trouble.

Try Scott's Emulsion. It cannot harm. It has helped thousands and may be exactly what you need. No Alcohol.

A MYSTERY IN PITTSBURG

Body of Miss Sophie McCallin Found on Railroad Tracks

HEAD WAS MISSING;
BODY MUTILATED

The Woman Disappeared on Wednesday—Her Friends
Believe She Was Robbed

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—The headless body of Miss Sophie McCallin, member of one of Pittsburg's oldest families, and daughter of an ex-mayor of the city, was found on the Pennsylvania tracks early yesterday.

How Miss McCallin met her death is a mystery. She was an auditor in the city comptroller's office and left as usual late Wednesday. When she failed to appear yesterday an investigation was started, which led to identifying the body in the morgue.

The body was mutilated almost beyond recognition. How long the body had lain beside the tracks no one knew, but the coroner said probably several hours.

Miss McCallin's friends believe she was held up and robbed and then thrown unconscious across the tracks.

Visitors at the morgue noticed that a number of rings Miss McCallin invariably wore and which were valued at more than $1,000 were missing from her fingers. Two fingers had been cut off the victim's left hand. The body bore no bruises of such a character as would indicate death by being struck by a train.

VERMONTERS SHOWED THEIR GENEROSITY

At the Same Time They Demonstrated That Vermont Can Raise Apples
—Visitors at Boston's Country
Fair Treated.

Boston, Oct. 29.—Vermont had her own way at the country fair in Mechanics building yesterday, bidding for the good will of all the visitors. The little state was trying to make the people understand that she can raise apples and is raising them in quite large quantities, for her representatives at the fair were giving away real apples free to everybody who came. There never was such apple-eating in the hall before, at least not at the expense of the Vermont farmers, and the demonstration was more convincing than volumes of statistics. There were some statistics, too, to supplement the epicurean argument. For instance, the visitors were informed that in the course of a fair apple year Vermont would have about 3,200,000 bushels of apples at home, like those given away. That was not the largest crop of apples that any state produced, but it was the twenty-second from the top on a list of state crops which is regarded as a "big show" for a small state like Vermont. Vermonters know the reasons for this, and summarize them in the following modest claim:

"Vermont is one of the best natural apple regions in the United States. Its principal advantages are unsurpassed soil and climatic conditions, superior flavor of Vermont apples, excellent keeping qualities of Vermont apples, cheapness of good orchard land, and proximity of the best market."

"Vermont's soil is fertile, and underlying it are granite and limestone rocks from which the soil has been made which is congenial to the apple. As a rule, Vermont has abundant rains, the summers are warm and the winters not too severe, but cold enough to keep down insect pests and fungus diseases which are less prevalent here than in many other states."

"Cheapness of orchard land is a great inducement to prospective apple growers. The best apple lands usually can be purchased for not more than $50 per acre, and much good land can be purchased for prices considerably less than that figure. These prices seem almost ridic-

PEACE MOVE EXPECTED

Officials at Washington Are Anticipating Word from the Kaiser

OPPORTUNE TIME FOR HIM TO START

Kaiser's Conference with Ambassador Gerard
Hopeful Sign

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Hopes for early and official discussion of possible terms of peace in Europe have been raised in the last few days. It is expected, following several recent circumstances of diplomatic maneuvering in foreign capitals, that Germany may launch the peace subject. It is known that state department officials are expecting reopening of the discussion of peace.

A circumstance that many diplomats regard as strongly pointing to possible peace negotiations was the long conference on Monday at Potsdam between the Kaiser and James W. Gerard, the American ambassador. The belief is strong here that the Kaiser's business with the American envoy pertained to the general subject of peace.

Gerard is expected to report soon to President Wilson, through the state department, with a "feeling out" process among the allies to come.

In diplomatic quarters it is argued that Germany is picking a peculiarly opportune time to launch peace proposals. The resignation yesterday of Premier Viviani of France, following that of Minister Delcasse, the cabinet disruptions in England, the apparent collapse of the allies' Dardanelles campaign, the imminent danger of the complete subjugation of Serbia, Russia's rout in Poland and the success of the Teutonic southern drive all combined to convince many diplomats here that Germany is in position at least to open peace discussions.

Guard Children Against Worms

Precocious or stomach worms are some of the most dreaded diseases of children.

Signs of worms are: Damaged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching.

Trade Mark, symbol, nothing of the same, itching of the bottom, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Dr. Tracy's Elderly, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, will surely and quickly expel worms, correct upset stomach and constipation. Adults are also benefited, and write one letter, like this: "Dr. Tracy's Elderly has done me a world of good. John Glass, Haverhill, Mass." At all druggists, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Advice Free.

Adverse Motion. Dr. Tracy.

of George Bancroft & Co., 15 Beaver street, a man who described himself as Don Collins, twenty-nine years old, a salesman, of 300 West Forty-ninth street, was arrested in his home yesterday on a charge of grand larceny.

According to Bancroft, on Oct. 10, when in the University hotel, at Forty-seventh street and Sixth avenue, Collins and others—the former representing himself as a police officer—pointed a revolver at his head and forced him to sign two papers, each calling for the payment of $2,500 on demand. When the second payment was demanded Bancroft communicated with the district attorney's office, and Assistant District Attorney Emery was assigned to the case. He went with Bancroft to police headquarters, where the police say the banker picked out Collins' picture in the rogues' gallery.
